HISTORY MINOR

ADMISSION TO THE MINOR

Students can declare the minor through the Minor Declaration tool in WesPortal.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS

(Approved by History Department on 2 February 2023)

Six History Courses Total

N.B. - Higher level History courses may be substituted for lower level ones.

- Courses must be taken at Wesleyan; however, up to three courses taken by transfer students at their previous institution may count towards the minor.

- Courses taught on campus by History Department faculty but not cross-listed as HIST courses can count towards the minor.

Courses to Satisfy the History Minor

- Three History courses 150 or higher
- Two History courses 300 level or higher
  - One History course must devote at least 50% of its attention and content to the period before 1800.
  - Only courses taught by faculty appointed in or affiliated with the History Department may count toward the minor.
  - Tutorials, education in the field, and student forums cannot be counted toward the minor.
  - AP or IB credit cannot count toward the minor.